OVERVIEW

People who appear for themselves without an attorney are considered to be “self-represented” and are also known as “pro se” litigants. This packet is often referred to as the “pro se divorce packet.” These packets work best when parties are able to agree and become more difficult when there are children, disagreements about property, financial interests, violence, harassment or coercion. Many areas of family law are very complicated, and some courts in the State of Wyoming require certain things that others courts do not. Therefore, it is not possible to include all legal solutions available to people in a divorce action in a single packet. Again, this packet will be most useful for people involved in an uncontested divorce (i.e., you both agree on all matters). There are other types of actions available, including temporary orders on child custody, support, alimony and restraining orders that are not included in this packet and might be easier to obtain with an attorney. These forms have been created to benefit the majority of people who represent themselves while also understanding that people with complex or emergency circumstances may continue to find themselves better served by getting an attorney. We hope you find this packet and the resources that it contains helpful.

DOMESTIC/FAMILY VIOLENCE:

If you or your children have been a victim of family (domestic) violence, it is recommended that you find an attorney to help you. There may be assistance available even if you cannot afford an attorney. Contact the Wyoming Coalition Against Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault (1-307-755-0992), Legal Aid of Wyoming (1-877-432-9955) or the Wyoming State Bar (1-307-632-9061) www.wyomingbar.org. If you have concerns about confidential information such as addresses and/or social security numbers, please consult an attorney and do not attempt to do this on your own. You should also know that Protection Orders and Stalking Orders are available free of charge at the circuit court clerk’s office. Please call the Wyoming Coalition Against Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault for assistance in obtaining domestic violence protection or stalking orders (1-307-755-0992). If you have ever obtained a protection order involving your spouse, you should include this information in the Complaint for Divorce or Counterclaim under the “Other Proceedings” section.

- This information packet is intended to provide general information to obtain a divorce.
- There is no guarantee these forms are still accurate and/or current. The information in this packet is not intended to replace an attorney.
- If you represent yourself, YOU PROCEED AT YOUR OWN RISK. You must decide which forms apply to your situation.
- DO NOT USE all forms, as some forms may not apply.
- Fill out the necessary forms completely and correctly.

Print or type all of the documents. DO NOT SIGN YOUR NAME WHERE THE JUDGE OR CLERK SHOULD SIGN.

LAWS: All laws and rules that apply to attorneys apply to you. It is your responsibility to properly prepare and file the necessary documents. The Judge will not sign orders that are incorrect or incomplete, nor will the Judge give you legal advice or make corrections for you.

You should read Title 20 of the Wyoming Statutes (the divorce laws), and you should also read the Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure. Most of the District Courts in the State of Wyoming have a courthouse library or county library where these laws and rules can be read. You may also look up these laws and rules on the internet at: www.courts.state.wy.us and clicking on “law library”. Some courts have special forms they want you to use in addition to the forms contained in this packet. Check with the clerk before you file your documents.

Clerks May Not Help You Fill Out the Forms. Unless your county has a court facilitator, employees in the Clerk of District Court’s office and in the Judge’s office cannot help you or give you legal advice.

The Judge Cannot Talk to You, Answer Your Questions or Assist You. Ex parte communication is communication with the Judge with only one party present. If you have something you need to tell the Judge, you must ask for a hearing and give notice to the other party or file a written statement in the Court file and send a copy of the written statement to the other party.

Situations that Need an Attorney. Federal law may impact the division of retirement benefits, employer-provided health insurance, or other benefits which arise out of the employment of either party, and your settlement terms may not be honored by the employer or the plan administrator of the employee benefits plan if your divorce decree is not properly completed or if a “qualified domestic relations order” (QDRO) is required. In addition, in the division of retirement benefits, there may be tax consequences which you may not anticipate. If your divorce involves issues like these, see an attorney to discuss tax consequences or the terms of a QDRO, or, if dealing with insurance issues, a “qualified medical child support order.”

In addition to the above situations, you should consult an attorney if:

- You are a victim of domestic/family violence
- The other party hires an attorney
- You or the other party are contemplating filing bankruptcy
- You or the other party expect to receive money because of a personal injury
- You or the other party own a business
- You or the other party have significant assets or debts
- You or the other party own real estate

Truthfulness. It is absolutely essential that you be completely honest and accurate in completing all forms. There are penalties for attempting to mislead the Court.

You should read Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 11 (representations to the court) and Wyoming Statute § 6-5-301 (perjury).

Unauthorized Practice of Law Notice. The purpose of this packet is to assist those persons who are doing their own divorce. It may be an unauthorized practice of law for a person who is not a licensed attorney to assist others in obtaining a divorce. Such practice could subject a guilty party to punishment for contempt of court.

You are reminded that if you choose to continue without an attorney, you are expected to know what to do and how to do it. The Wyoming Supreme Court has said: “A pro se litigant (one without an attorney) will be granted no greater right than any other litigant and he must expect and receive...the same treatment as if represented by an attorney...” In other words, if you do not have an attorney you will be held to the same standards as a person with an attorney.

FAMILY LAW INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

CONFIDENTIALITY: If you have concerns about keeping information confidential, such as your address and/or social security number, please consult an attorney. You should also know that Domestic Violence Protection Orders or Stalking Orders are available free of charge at the circuit court clerks' offices. You may request assistance in obtaining Domestic Violence Protection or Stalking Orders from your local domestic violence or sexual assault program or you may call the Wyoming Coalition Against Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault (1-307-755-0992). There are also private attorneys who may be willing to assist clients in these matters. If you have ever obtained a Protection Order against the other party, this information should be indicated in the Complaint for Divorce or the Counterclaim.

Read through the following information and instructions before completing the forms to make sure you qualify to file a divorce in Wyoming. To file a complaint, either 1) you or your spouse must live in Wyoming for at least sixty (60) days immediately before you file, or 2) you must have been married in Wyoming and you or your spouse must have lived in Wyoming ever since. You must fill out all forms as completely as possible. If your forms are not complete, the Judge may reject your packet.

Step 1. Getting Started. The following forms are required in all uncontested divorce cases. It is recommended that you complete all of these forms before you file the Complaint for Divorce so that they will be ready to be filed at the appropriate time:

1. Civil Cover Sheet
2. Vital Statistics form
3. Complaint for Divorce
4. Summons
5. Acknowledgement and Acceptance of Service
6. Affidavit for Divorce Without Appearance of Parties
7. Decree of Divorce

*Other forms may be required depending on the Court and on your situation. If additional forms are needed, they will be discussed below where applicable.

Step 2. File your divorce case. A divorce case begins with the filing of a Complaint for Divorce. A Complaint for Divorce is a written request to the court for a divorce. The person who originally asks for this legal action is called the Plaintiff and remains the Plaintiff throughout the case.

The Complaint for Divorce is given to the Clerk of the District Court, whose office is usually located in the county courthouse or a branch of the county courthouse. A list of the Clerk of District Court for each Judicial District is included in the packet. You will file your case in the District Court in the county where either you or your spouse reside. A case number, also called a civil action number, is assigned and an official court file is opened. Delivering the Complaint for Divorce to the Clerk's office is called filing a case. A filing fee is required. Ask the Clerk what the amount of the filing fee is and what forms of payment are accepted.

Case Number: When you start a lawsuit by filing the paperwork with the Clerk of the District Court, a case number will be assigned by the Clerk. You must include that case number on all further paperwork in the "caption." The caption is the top section of a pleading, motion, and complaint stating the name of the Plaintiff, Defendant, the District Court the case is filed in and the case number.

A. When you file the Complaint for Divorce, you will also need to file the Civil Cover Sheet. Follow the instructions that accompany this form.

B. You will also need to file the Vital Statistics form. Fill out all portions of this form EXCEPT the "Decree" section, which will be completed by the Clerk when your divorce is final.

C. You will also need to have the Clerk sign (a/k/a "issue") the Summons.

Take the original and two (2) copies of each document to the Clerk's office. The Clerk will give copies of each document back to you after stamping them with the date they were filed. This is called a "file stamp." You should keep one copy of each document for your records. The other set of documents will need to be served upon the Defendant.

RECAP for Step 2: To start your divorce case, you will need to file the following documents with the Clerk of the District Court's office located in the county courthouse in the county where either you or your spouse resides:

- A. Civil Cover Sheet
 - a. Follow the instructions that accompany this form for help completing it correctly;
- B. Vital Statistics Form
 - a. Fill out all portions, EXCEPT the "Decree" section, which will be completed by the Clerk when your divorce is final;
- C. Complaint for Divorce; and
- D. Summons;
- E. Pay the filing fee;
- F. Take the original and two (2) copies of each document to the Clerk's office.
 - a. The Clerk will give both copies back to you after file-stamping them.
 - b. You should keep one copy for your records.
 - c. The other set of documents will need to be served upon the Defendant.

Step 3. Serve the Defendant. The person against whom the original legal action is being requested is called the Defendant and remains the Defendant throughout the case. The Defendant is expected to file an answer to the Complaint for Divorce.

Once your case has been filed with the Clerk, a file-stamped copy of the paperwork must be formally given to (a/k/a served on) the Defendant. The Defendant needs to be served with the Complaint for Divorce and the Summons so the Court has proof that he or she received the papers. A Sheriff must personally serve the Complaint for Divorce and the Summons on the Defendant, unless the Defendant completes an Acknowledgment and Acceptance of Service form. Other forms of service exist, but these are the two easiest methods that meet the formal service requirement for a Complaint for Divorce. If you cannot serve the Defendant by either of these methods, ask the Clerk for additional forms for alternative methods of service. These forms are also available in Pro Se Packet 10.

You MUST give the Defendant official notice that you have filed for divorce within 90 days from the date you filed the Complaint for Divorce. This is done by serving a file-stamped copy of the Summons and Complaint for Divorce upon the Defendant or by having the Defendant sign an Acknowledgment and Acceptance of Service form stating a copy of those documents were received. If you do not serve the Defendant within 90 days, your case can be dismissed by the Court.

A. How to Serve the Defendant. Choose ONLY ONE of the following options to serve the Defendant:

Option 1– Service by Sheriff

Summons. It is recommended to have a Sheriff in the county where the Defendant can be found serve him or her with the papers. There will be a separate service fee (usually fifty ($50.00) dollars in Wyoming). You can contact the Sheriff’s department in the county where the Defendant lives to determine the fee charged by the Sheriff. This is also true if your spouse is going to be served out of state. You will need to provide the Sheriff with a file-stamped copy of the Summons and Complaint for Divorce to be served on the Defendant.

Proof of Service. The Sheriff’s office will complete the last page of the Summons called the “Return” (or they may have their own form - an “Affidavit of Service”) and will usually file the original with the Clerk’s office and send you a copy. If you receive what looks like the original “Return” or “Affidavit of Service” from the Sheriff, call the Clerk’s office to ensure the original has been filed. If it has not, then file the original with the Clerk’s office and keep a copy for yourself. This is the proof that the Defendant was given proper notice.

Note: Once the Defendant has been served, you MUST file the original Summons and Return (or Affidavit of Service) with the Clerk’s office so that the Judge knows that proper service was made.

OR:

Option 2 – Acknowledgement and Acceptance of Service. If the Defendant agrees, he or she may sign a form stating that a copy of the Summons and Complaint for Divorce were received. If the Defendant agrees, you will need to fill out an Acknowledgment and Acceptance of Service form. The Defendant must sign this document in front of a Notarial Officer.

Notarizing Signatures. Some forms will require you to have your signature notarized. Notarial Officers may administer the oath and witness your signature, or in many cases, Clerks of Court will be willing to administer the necessary oath. Each Clerk’s office has their own policy so check with them first before seeking notarization of your signature on the forms.

Proof of Service. Once the Acknowledgment and Acceptance of Service form is signed, take the original and two (2) copies of the signed form to the Clerk's office for filing. You should keep one copy for your records and provide the other copy to the Defendant.

Note: You must file the signed Acknowledgment and Acceptance of Service form and the original Summons with the Clerk's office so that the Judge knows that proper service on the Defendant was made.

RECAP for Step 3: You MUST give the Defendant official notice that you have filed for divorce within 90 days from the date you filed the Complaint for Divorce. Choose one of the following methods:

Option 1 – Service by Sheriff

- A. Provide a copy of the file-stamped Summons and Complaint for Divorce to the Sheriff where the Defendant lives;
- B. Pay the service fee; and
- C. Once the Defendant is served, be sure the original Summons and the Return or the Affidavit of Service are filed with the Clerk's office; OR

Option 2 – Acknowledgement and Acceptance of Service

- A. Provide a file-stamped copy of the Summons and Complaint for Divorce to the Defendant;
- B. Have the Defendant sign the Acknowledgment and Acceptance of Service form in front of a Notarial Officer;
- C. File the original Acknowledgment and Acceptance of Service form with the Clerk's office; and
- D. File the original Summons with the Clerk's office.

Step 4. Wait for the Defendant's time to Answer to expire. Once the Defendant is served, he or she has 20 days (if served in the State of Wyoming or 30 days if served out-of-state) to file an Answer to the Complaint for Divorce. You must wait for the appropriate time period to expire before you can proceed with the divorce case. You must wait the 20 days (or 30 days if served out-of-state) even if the Defendant tells you that he or she is not going to file an Answer.

- Computation of Time Limits. - In computing most time limits, unless otherwise stated, the day the document is served shall not be included. The last day of the time period is included, unless it lands on a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday, or, if the Courthouse is closed then the time limit will be on the very next day that the Courthouse is open. If you have questions about time limits you should seek the advice of an attorney.
- While waiting, move on to Step 5. You can also use this time to continue to work on the other required forms to be sure they are filled out completely and correctly.

RECAP for Step 4: You MUST wait for the Defendant's time to file an Answer to expire before you can proceed with your divorce case. In the meantime:

- A. Mark on the calendar when the Defendant's time to Answer expires;
- B. Move on to Step 5 while waiting; and
- C. Use this time to ensure the required forms are filled out completely and correctly.

Step 5. Initial Disclosures. The law requires certain information be made available to the other party within thirty (30) days after the Defendant's Answer is required to be served on the Plaintiff (use the table in 5.A. below to determine date). The information consists of a schedule of financial assets; schedule of non-financial assets; schedule of all debts owed individually or jointly; location(s) of safety deposit box(es); employment information; and information regarding other income and retirement accounts.

Please note that "A party must make its disclosures based on the information then reasonably available to it and is not excused from making its disclosures because it has not fully completed its investigation of the case or because it challenges the sufficiency of another party's disclosures or because another party has not made its disclosures."

A. WHEN TO PROVIDE: Initial Disclosures must be provided to the Defendant (or his/her attorney) WITHIN 30 DAYS AFTER THE DEFENDANT'S ANSWER IS REQUIRED TO BE SERVED ON YOU (use table below). Be sure to keep a copy of your Initial Disclosures form for your records. Use the following to determine the date when you and the Defendant are required to provide initial disclosures to one another.

1. Begin with the date the Defendant was served with the Complaint:

2. Next, determine when the Defendant is required to file an Answer:
 - a. If the Defendant was served in Wyoming, add 20 days to the date in #1:

 - OR
 - b. If the Defendant signed an Acknowledgement and Acceptance of Service, add 20 days to the date in #1: _____
 - OR
 - c. If the Defendant was served out-of-state, add 30 days to the date in #1:

3. Add 30 days to the date in #2(a), (b), or (c): _____

The date set forth in #3 is the date by which you and the Defendant must provide your completed Initial Disclosures forms to one another.

B. DO NOT FILE THE INITIAL DISCLOSURES WITH THE COURT. This form is only given to the Defendant (or his/her attorney).

RECAP for Step 5: You MUST provide your Initial Disclosures to the Defendant within 30 days after the Defendant's Answer is required to be served on you (use table in 5.A. above to determine date). Mark on the calendar the deadline to provide your Initial Disclosures; and

- A. Provide your Initial Disclosures to the Defendant by the deadline.
- B. DO NOT file the Initial Disclosures with the Clerk's office.

Step 6. Once the time for the Defendant to file an Answer has expired and you've sent your Initial Disclosures to the Defendant, then several options exist to move your case forward to get a Decree of Divorce. Pick the option that best describes your situation:

Option A. If the Defendant filed an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim and you both agree on all of the issues of your divorce, follow option A below.

Option B. If the Defendant did not file an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim, follow option B below.

Option C. If the Defendant filed an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim and you do NOT agree on all the issues of your divorce, follow option C.

Option A. The following instructions apply if the Defendant filed an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim, and you both agree on all of the issues of your divorce. If you and the Defendant agree on the issues involved in your divorce, then you will need to complete the following:

- A. Fill out an Affidavit for Divorce Without Appearance of Parties.
- B. Fill out a Decree of Divorce. This form will need to be filled out completely, signed by both you and the Defendant and both of your signatures notarized. In addition to signing the Decree, you should also initial each page of the Decree to verify that each page contains the terms you agreed upon.
- C. Other Form(s): Other forms may be required depending on the county where your case is filed. Ask the Clerk if additional forms are required before your Decree of Divorce will be entered.
- D. Copies and Envelopes. Take an original and two (2) copies of each of the above documents for filing with the Clerk and two (2) addressed, stamped envelopes (one addressed to you and one to the Defendant with enough postage to cover the cost of mailing the Decree of Divorce to you and the Defendant). A copy of any documents that you file (other than the Decree of Divorce) must be sent to the Defendant on the date that you filled out on the Certificate of Service on each document.
 - If a hearing is not required by your Court, the Clerk will mail a copy of your Decree of Divorce if accepted by the Court.
 - If a hearing is required by your Court, follow the next steps:

E. Hearing. In some Courts, a hearing is required before the Judge will sign the Decree of Divorce. If this is the case, you will need to request a hearing by completing the Request for Setting. If you have reached an agreement, check the box that states that the parties have entered into a settlement agreement. Indicate how much time you will need for the hearing (usually 15 minutes if there is an agreement). You will file the Order Setting Hearing with the Clerk's office, and the Court will fill in the hearing date and time and mail a copy to you and the Defendant. You will need to provide an addressed, stamped envelope for you and the Defendant to the Clerk. These documents are additional forms contained in your packet.

F. Evidence. At the hearing, you will need to tell the Judge that either 1) you or your spouse have lived in Wyoming for at least 60 days immediately before you filed the Complaint for Divorce, or 2) you and your spouse were married in Wyoming and at least one of you has lived in Wyoming ever since. You will also need to tell the Judge about irreconcilable differences in the marriage (why you want a divorce), and why the settlement you reached (who gets what) is fair.

Give the Decree of Divorce to the Judge. The Judge may ask you questions. The Judge will not guide you through the hearing, tell you how to proceed or advise you on the law. Following the hearing, the Judge will make any necessary changes to the Decree of Divorce and will sign it.

G. When will your divorce become final? Your divorce will not be final until the Judge approves the Decree of Divorce and it is filed with the Clerk. This process may take time if the Judge requires changes to the proposed Decree. You must verify with the Clerk that the Decree of Divorce has been file-stamped before you can be sure your divorce is final.

RECAP for Option A: If you and the Defendant agree on all issues in the divorce and the Defendant filed an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim, complete the following:

Remember: Take an original and two copies of each document to file with the Clerk's office. You will need to send a copy of any filed document to the Defendant unless otherwise stated below.

1. Affidavit for Divorce Without Appearance of Parties
2. Decree of Divorce
 - Take an original and two (2) copies of the Decree of Divorce for filing with the Clerk and two (2) addressed, stamped envelopes (one addressed to you and one to the Defendant with enough postage to cover the cost of mailing the Decree of Divorce to you and the Defendant).
3. Complete and file any additional documents required by your Court.
4. If your Court requires a hearing before entering a Decree of Divorce, then you will also need to file and do the following:
 - Request for Setting
 - Order Setting Hearing
 - Take an original and two (2) copies of the Order Setting Hearing for filing with the Clerk and two (2) addressed, stamped envelopes (one addressed to you and one to the Defendant with enough postage to cover the cost of mailing the Order Setting Hearing to you and the Defendant).
 - Attend the Hearing

Your divorce is final when the Decree of Divorce has been signed by the Judge and filed by the Clerk.

Option B. If the Defendant does not file an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim, obtain a default divorce by following these steps:

A. Default Divorce. After the required waiting period has expired, you may obtain what is referred to as a divorce by default if the Defendant does NOT file an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim to the Complaint for Divorce.

B. Necessary forms. Fill out and sign the Application for Entry of Default and Affidavit in Support of Default. Take an original and two (2) copies of these documents to the Clerk and the blank Entry of Default. If your paperwork is correct, the Clerk will sign the Entry of Default. These are additional forms located in your packet.

C. Additional Documents. After the Entry of Default is signed by the Clerk, complete Step 6, Option A, items A through D above. MAKE SURE TO MARK “DEFAULT” ON THE DECREE.

D. Default Hearing. Some Courts will not enter a Default Decree of Divorce unless there is a hearing. Ask the Clerk if this is required for your Court. If it is, fill out a Request for Setting and request 15 minutes for the hearing. You will file the Order Setting Hearing with the Clerk’s office and they will fill in the hearing date and time and mail a copy to you and the Defendant. You will need to provide an addressed, stamped envelope for you and the Defendant to the Clerk.

E. Evidence. At the hearing, you will need to tell the Judge that either 1) you or your spouse have lived in Wyoming for at least 60 days immediately before you filed the Complaint for Divorce, or 2) you and your spouse were married in Wyoming and at least one of you has lived in Wyoming ever since. You will also need to tell the Judge about irreconcilable differences in the marriage (why you want a divorce), and why the settlement you reached (who gets what) is fair.

Give the Decree of Divorce to the Judge. The Judge may ask you questions. The Judge will not guide you through the hearing, tell you how to proceed or advise you on the law. Following the hearing, the Judge will make any necessary changes to the Decree of Divorce and will sign it.

F. When will your divorce become final? Your divorce will not be final until the Judge signs the Decree of Divorce and it is filed with the Clerk. This process may take time if the Judge requires changes to the proposed Decree. You must verify with the Clerk that the Decree of Divorce has been file-stamped before you can be sure your divorce is final. The time limit to appeal a decree begins to run from the day the Decree of Divorce is filed with the Clerk’s office.

RECAP for Option B: If the Defendant did NOT file an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim, complete the following:

Remember: Take an original and two copies of each document to file with the Clerk’s office. You will need to send a copy of any filed document to the Defendant unless otherwise stated below.

1. Application for Entry of Default
2. Affidavit in Support of Default
3. Entry of Default (Clerk will sign if your paperwork is correct)
4. Affidavit for Divorce Without Appearance of Parties
5. Decree of Divorce - MAKE SURE TO MARK "DEFAULT" ON DECREE.
 - A. Take an original and two (2) copies of the Decree of Divorce for filing with the Clerk and two (2) addressed, stamped envelopes (one addressed to you and one to the Defendant with enough postage to cover the cost of mailing the Decree of Divorce to you and the Defendant).
6. Complete and file any additional documents required by your Court
7. If your Court requires a hearing before entering a Decree of Divorce, then you will also need to file and do the following:
 - A. Request for Setting
 - B. Order Setting Hearing
 - C. Take an original and two (2) copies of the Order Setting Hearing for filing with the Clerk and two (2) addressed, stamped envelopes (one addressed to you and one to the Defendant with enough postage to cover the cost of mailing the Order Setting Hearing to you and the Defendant)
 - D. Attend the Hearing

Your divorce is final when the Decree of Divorce has been signed by the Judge and filed by the Clerk.

Option C. If the Defendant Answers or Answers and Counterclaims, and you and the Defendant do NOT agree on all issues of your divorce, you will need to have a trial:

A. You must file a Reply to the Counterclaim. If the Defendant has filed an Answer and Counterclaim for a divorce, you will have a time limit (usually 20 days) to file a written response (Reply to Counterclaim) to the counterclaim. The original, signed copy of your reply must be filed with the Clerk and a copy must be sent to the Defendant (or his/her attorney).

- Caution: If you do not file the original Reply to Counterclaim with the Clerk within the time allowed, the Defendant can seek a default divorce against you and may get what he/she asked for in his/her counterclaim.

B. Trial. If there is no agreement, your case will have to be heard and decided by a Judge at a trial.

- Caution: It is strongly recommended that you hire or find an attorney to represent you at trial, though you may represent yourself. You proceed at your own risk and will be expected to know the laws.

C. Request a trial date. You will need to request a hearing by completing a Request for Setting. Write in "trial" where it asks the type of hearing. Indicate how much time you think it will take for you and the other party to present your evidence and write that in (usually one (1) to three (3) hours). You also need to decide whether or not you want a Court reporter to record the proceeding. SEE BELOW FOR DETAILS ON GETTING A COURT REPORTER. It is very difficult to appeal the Judge's decision if you do not get a Court reporter to take down everything that is said at the trial.

- You must file the Request for Setting and the Order Setting Divorce Trial and Requesting Pretrial Statements with the Clerk's office and someone there will fill in the hearing date and time and mail a copy to you and the other party. You will need to provide an addressed, stamped envelope for you and the Defendant to the Clerk. Both the Request for Setting and the Order Setting Divorce Trial and Requesting Pretrial Statements are additional forms contained in your packet.

D. Pretrial Disclosures. Both parties must provide to the other party AND PROMPTLY FILE WITH THE COURT the Pretrial Disclosures regarding the evidence that it may present at trial. If you have questions, you should contact an attorney.

- When are the Pretrial Disclosures due? Unless otherwise directed by the Court, these disclosures must be made at least 30 days before trial.
- Take the original and two (2) copies to the Clerk for filing. Keep one copy for your records and send the other copy to the Defendant (or his/her attorney).

E. Settlement before trial. In the event that your case settles before the trial, you must present the Court with the agreement (or completed and signed Decree of Divorce) in writing before the Court will take the trial off of the schedule. There will be no continuances or canceling of the trial date based on telephone calls. If you need a continuance, you should contact an attorney for assistance in seeking one.

F. Court Reporter. If you wish to have a Court reporter you shall provide notice to the official Court reporter as soon as possible, but no later than three (3) working days before the matter is set for hearing. You can provide notice to the court reporter by phone or by submitting a written request. Please note that if providing notice through the mail, the request must be received by the court reporter no later than three working days prior to the hearing. The Clerk will be able to inform you which court reporter to contact. The three-day notice requirement will not be waived by the Court. The notice is required for all civil matters including jury trials.

G. Evidence and Witnesses. At the hearing, you will need to present your evidence and witnesses. If the Order Setting Divorce Trial and Requesting Pretrial Statements is entered (signed by the Judge), you must follow the terms and provide the Court with the information requested in that document, including copies of exhibits you want to introduce at the trial and a list of your proposed witnesses and what their testimony is going to be about within the time frame ordered (usually 3 to 5 days prior to the trial). Under the law, the Judge cannot help you or assist you at trial. You are on your own without an attorney.

H. Final Decision (Decree of Divorce). Following the trial, the Judge will make a decision or may take the matter under advisement, meaning he or she will need to think further before making a determination. If the Judge instructs you, you must take that decision and type it into the Decree of Divorce incorporating the Judge's decision.

- You are again reminded that, if you choose to continue without an attorney, you are expected to know what to do and how to do it. The Judge will not guide you through the trial/hearing, tell you how to proceed or advise you on the law.
- You will also need to complete any additional forms that may be required by your Court.

I. When will your divorce become final? Your divorce will not be final until the Judge signs the Decree of Divorce and it is filed with the Clerk of Court. This process may take time if the Judge requires changes to the proposed Decree. You must verify with the Clerk's office that the Decree of Divorce has been file-stamped before you can be sure your divorce is final. The time limit to appeal a decree begins to run from the day the Decree of Divorce is filed with the Clerk's office.

RECAP for Option C: If the Defendant filed an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim and you do NOT agree on the issues, complete the following:

A NOTE ABOUT MARITAL vs. NON-MARITAL ASSETS AND DEBTS

In the following tables you will be asked to distinguish marital property/debt from non-marital (separate) property/debt. Marital property/debt will be divided between you and your spouse as part of the divorce; non-marital property/debt usually will not be divided (depending on the situation).

The general rule is that marital property and debt is any property or debt acquired during the marriage for the benefit of the marriage, regardless of who paid for it or whose name is on it. However, just because a party acquired property before marriage does not necessarily mean that it won't be considered marital property. A spouse's premarital separate property can become marital when a married couple demonstrates an intent, through their words or actions during marriage, to treat one spouse's separate property as marital property. Gifts and inheritances are generally separate property, although gifts for the benefit of the marriage, such as a dishwasher, may be considered marital property.

"During the marriage" generally means from the time of marriage until the time of separation.

People often dispute what property/debt is marital or how long the marriage lasted. When this happens, you are urged to consult with an attorney to learn about the various legal arguments that may be available to you.

If you want to read more about divorce and property division, you can review that information here, <http://www.legalhelpwy.org/>.

(____) minutes/hour(s)/day(s) has been set aside for the trial of this matter.

These filings are required to narrow and simplify the issues, prevent surprise and to eliminate unnecessary proof. The material may be presented in narrative form but must be complete for purposes called for by this order. To avoid duplication, the parties or their attorneys, if any, may submit a joint statement of those items not in dispute.

Any party requesting the reporting of a particular matter by the official court reporter shall make a request to the appropriate official court reporter as soon as possible, but no later than three (3) working days before the matter is set for hearing. You can provide notice to the

Please note that if providing notice through the mail, the request must be received by the court reporter no later than three working days prior to the hearing. The clerk will be able to inform you which court reporter to contact. The three-day notice requirement will not be waived by the Court. The notice is required for all civil matters including jury trials. If a hearing is not recorded by an official court reporter, a transcript of the hearing will not be available. It is very difficult to appeal a decision if you do not have a transcript of everything that is said at the trial. Rule 904 of the Uniform Rules of the District Courts of the State of Wyoming.

In the event that this case settles, the parties are informed that there will be no change in the scheduling of this matter by the Court until such time as the settlement is reduced to writing and a written agreement is presented to the court.
